The Westin Mount Laurel Announces New General Manager Scott Robinson Robinson is taking the helm after a $7 million hotel remodel

April 24, Mount Laurel, NJ—The Westin Mount Laurel, part of the Marriott family of hotel brands, has announced the hiring of new General Manager Scott Robinson.

Robinson has held a variety of hospitality positions and has overseen sales operations at several hotels throughout the country. He was general manager of the Heritage Hotel & Resort in Southbury, CT, where he oversaw all hotel operations, including guest and associate satisfaction, human resources, finance, sales and marketing.

During his tenure with Pyramid Hotel Group as regional vice president of sales, he oversaw 12 properties spanning the Midwest to the Northeast including Hilton, Starwood, Marriott and Independent Hotels.

“Scott has the skills and expertise we need to grow our corporate and social business and to focus on personalized customer service,” says Pawan Deepak, senior director of U.S. operations. “We look forward to having him lead the team during this important time.”

Built in 2008, the Westin Mount Laurel has just undergone a $7 million renovation that includes remodeled guest rooms, ballrooms, meeting spaces, lobby area, restaurant, gym and more.

The redesign incorporates the natural and contemporary elements that are part of the signature Westin décor.

“I am thrilled to be part of this terrific organization and to take the property forward during this exciting period of growth,” says Robinson.

Robinson has a degree in hotel management from SCCC, Riverhead, NY.
